

Autumn has come to Las Vegas and there has never been a better time to visit. You still have time to do holiday shopping and there are plenty of things to do this weekend.

From dueling pianos to dinner (way) above the Las Vegas Strip, it's all happening this weekend in Vegas.

Bars & dining

Weekend of dueling pianos, prix fixe meals

Opening just in time for fall, Pete's Dueling Piano Bar at Town Square will surely attract locals and Vegas visitors alike. The rock 'n' roll piano bar will keep you entertained and satiated, pouring plenty of libations nightly. The bar opens Nov. 13. Hours will be Tuesday - Saturday, 4 p.m. - 3 a.m. and the entertainment starts at 7 p.m. Tuesday - Thursday and 8 p.m. Friday & Saturday.

Payard Pâtisserie & Bistro at Caesars Palace is offering an autumn-inspired prix fixe lunch menu for $19. The three-course menu contains tempting delights like asparagus salad, seared sea bass and a signature Payard pastry. The special is available in the main dining room.

Nove Italiano's new tasting menu arrives just in time for fall. At $45, the four-course prix fixe menu includes choice of antipasti, pasta, main course and dessert. Sit high above Las Vegas at the Palms with gorgeous views of the Las Vegas Strip and take advantage of this tasting menu, served for dinner, Fridays and Saturdays until 7:30 p.m.
