

My Vegas Scene September 22, 2009

Dueling Piano Bar to Open in Town Square Las Vegas

Posted on September 22nd, 2009 by Brian Golbourne | @Bgolbourne

It's almost time for Pete's Dueling Piano Bar to open at Town Square Las Vegas, which is anticipated to be Las Vegas' premiere source for nightly singing, laughing, dancing and piano excitement.

Bringing nightly celebrations and unparalleled entertainment to Town Square, Pete's Dueling Piano Bar is slated to open this November 2009. Every night, four of the best piano players in the country will take the stage in two-person rotations to win over the crowd with hit performances on baby grand pianos.

Pete's Dueling Piano Bar started as a one man show at Pete's Peanut Bar & Piano Emporium in Austin, TX in 1992. At Pete's - everyone is included in the fun. Throughout the evening the venue features a spotlight on the waitress and bar staff as they dance, sing and clap with the audience. They call this feature "Showtime."

Pete's Dueling Piano Bar is just what a small community for locals like Town Square needs. Let's welcome Pete's and rock out with some Pianos in November for its grand opening. Stay tuned!